

JOBS

The Census Bureau is presently taking applications and giving tests for field workers for the 2010 census. Hiring of field workers has already begun. Applicants should be at least 18 years of age, be a US citizen and take a 30 minute test on basic skills. The pay rate for hires in the Northern Kentucky area is $13.75 to $15.25 per hour; paid weekly. They receive the standard federal mileage reimbursement and paid training. Also, the Covington Office is now open and hiring clerks from $10.50 per hour. Applicants can schedule an appointment to apply and take the test by calling either of the following:

- The local Covington Office: 859-814-2000
- The toll free number: 1-866-861-2010

The decennial census is mandated by the US Constitution. It is an important job and exciting opportunity. The results of the census are used for several purposes:

- US House of Representative seat apportionment
- State legislative redistricting
- Allocating federal funds ($300 billion)
- Managing federal agencies
- Given to state & local governments, colleges & universities, and the private sector for many other reasons

Make a difference and help in the accurate count of the population in Covington! You will receive competitive wages while providing an important civic service. Website: <http://2010.census.gov/2010census/> .